DEDICATION

There hang on the opposite walls of the front corridor at Sherman High School two pictures. To the visitor and to many of the students, the pictures might be those of women whose faces say, "Gentlewomen."

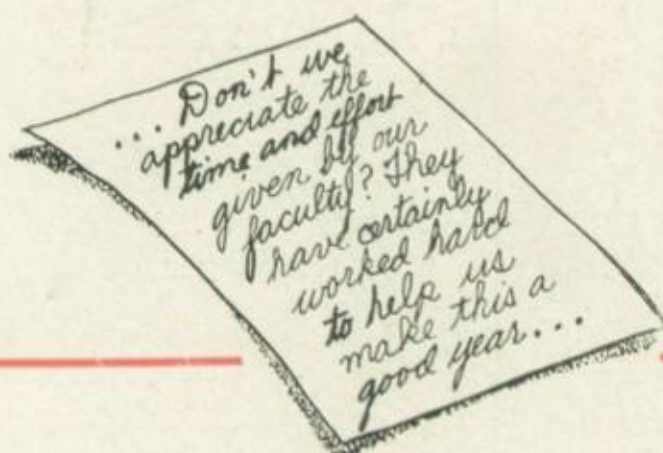

On the right hand wall hangs the picture of Miss Mary Boyd, for many years a teacher of Latin and Dean of Girls at Sherman High. On the left wall hangs the picture of Miss Mary Crutchfield, renowned over the state as a teacher of civics and history at Sherman High.

To the memory of these two great teachers, deceased this last year, and to the heritage left by them for Sherman High School students forever, this book is respectfully dedicated.

Mr. Landolt speaks to the student body at the presentation of the "S" jackets to the football boys, with Head Coach Floyd's approval

Tea in the homemaking dining room after Mr. Farley's talk in assembly . . . Jimmy Morris and his bugle at 8:30 a. m. . . Miss Noble and a few of her math students at the Junior Academy of Science meeting in Fort Worth . . . Coach Sory talking over the heads of the basketball boys . . the fifth period in the cafeteria.

SHS

Some of our students rank as favorites among the student body. We elected them to special places which are representative of the entire student body, and then the competition began again among the classes for the "big pictures."

The seniors came through, as usual, with the highest percentage of Athenian sales..

FRIENDLIEST BOY AND GIRL

Jackie Jackson and Jerry Brown congratulate Bobbye Cole and Don Morton after the announcement of the winner at the all-school dance.

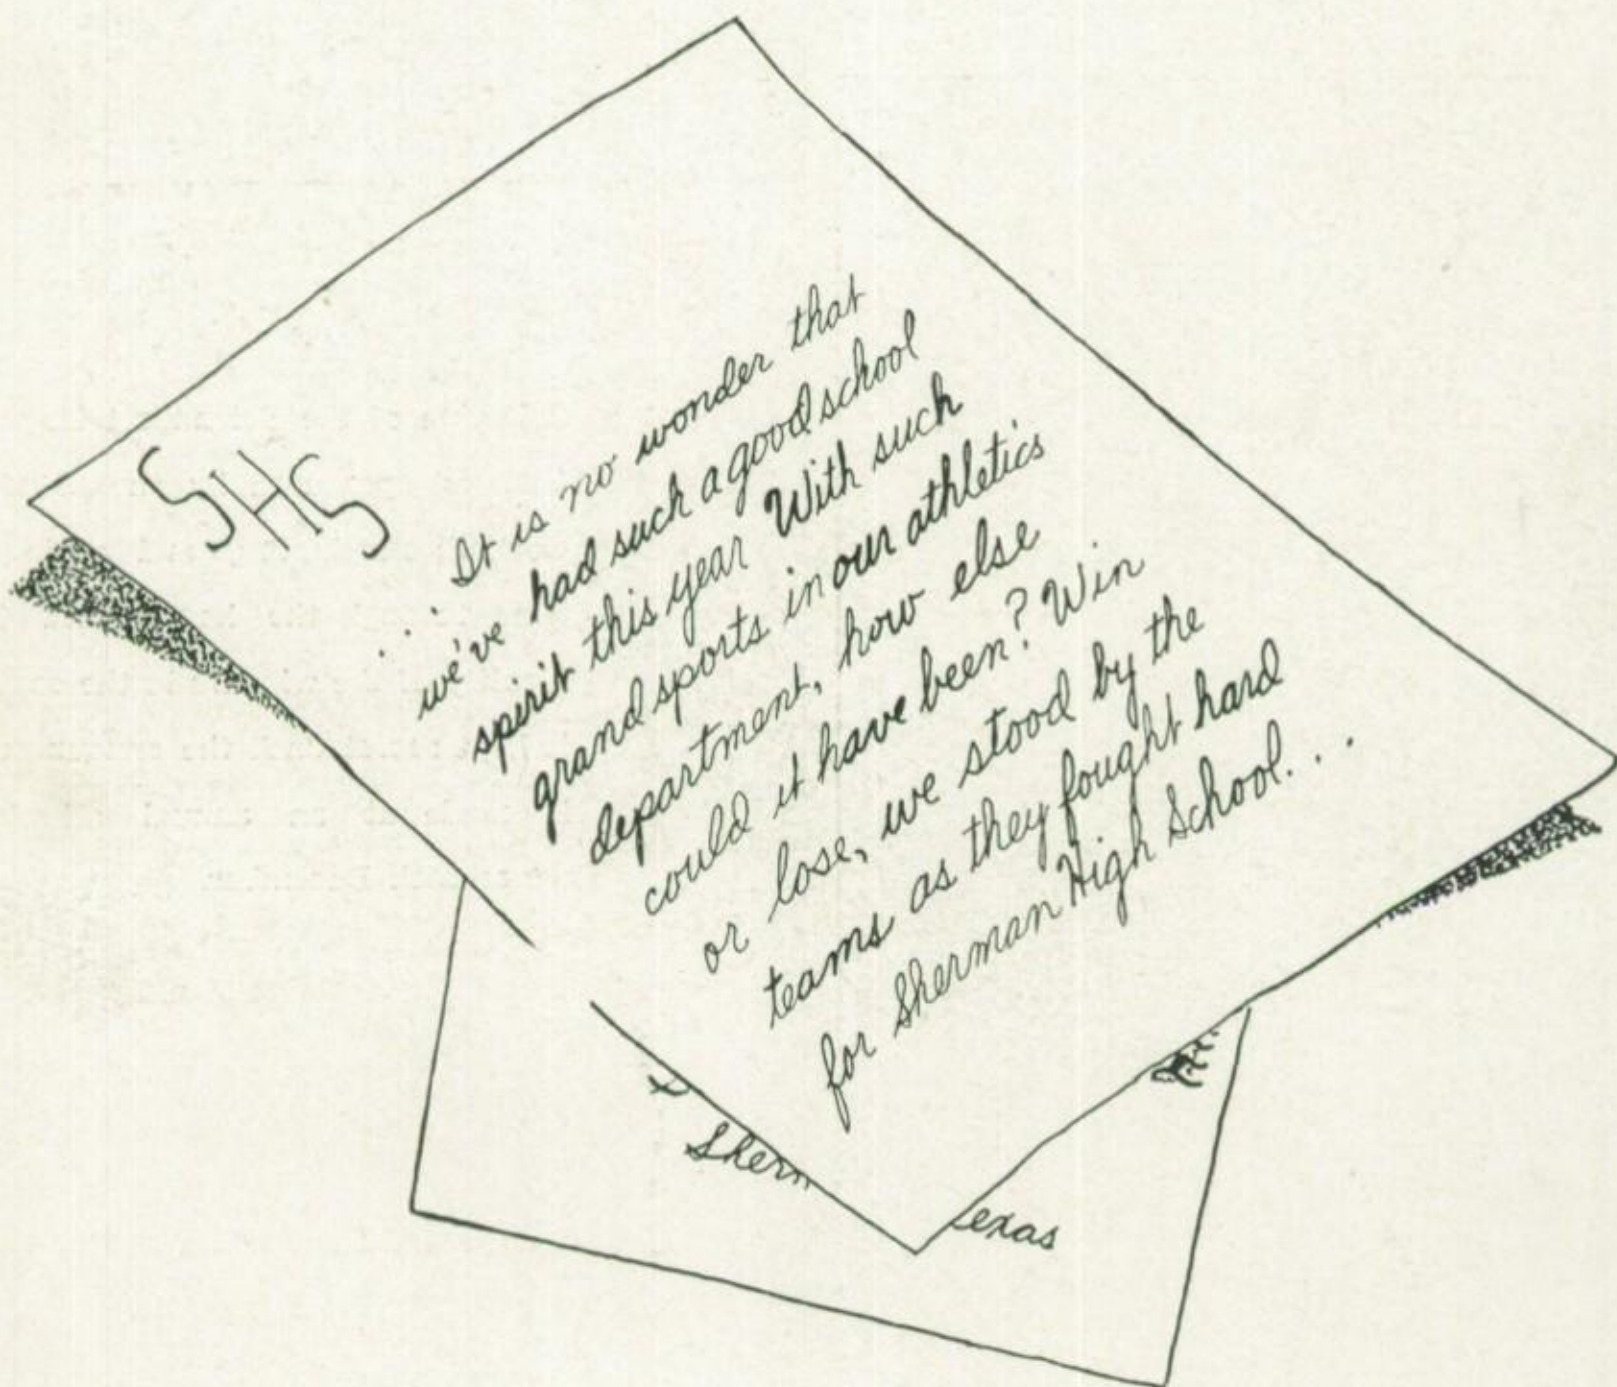

Jack Wyatt, Senior Class and Student Council president, has just announced Bobbye and Don as the friendliest in Sherman High School.

Selection of the Friendliest Boy and Girl is sponsored by the Student Council; nominating and voting is done through the homerooms. The identity of the winners in the contest is kept secret until the announcement is made at an annual all-school dance each December.

Bobbye and Don as they appear every day to their voting public.

Tyrus Mulkey convinces "Denison Fan," John Lynn Harrington, that Sherman's football plays are better than Denison's.

THE VARIETY SHOW

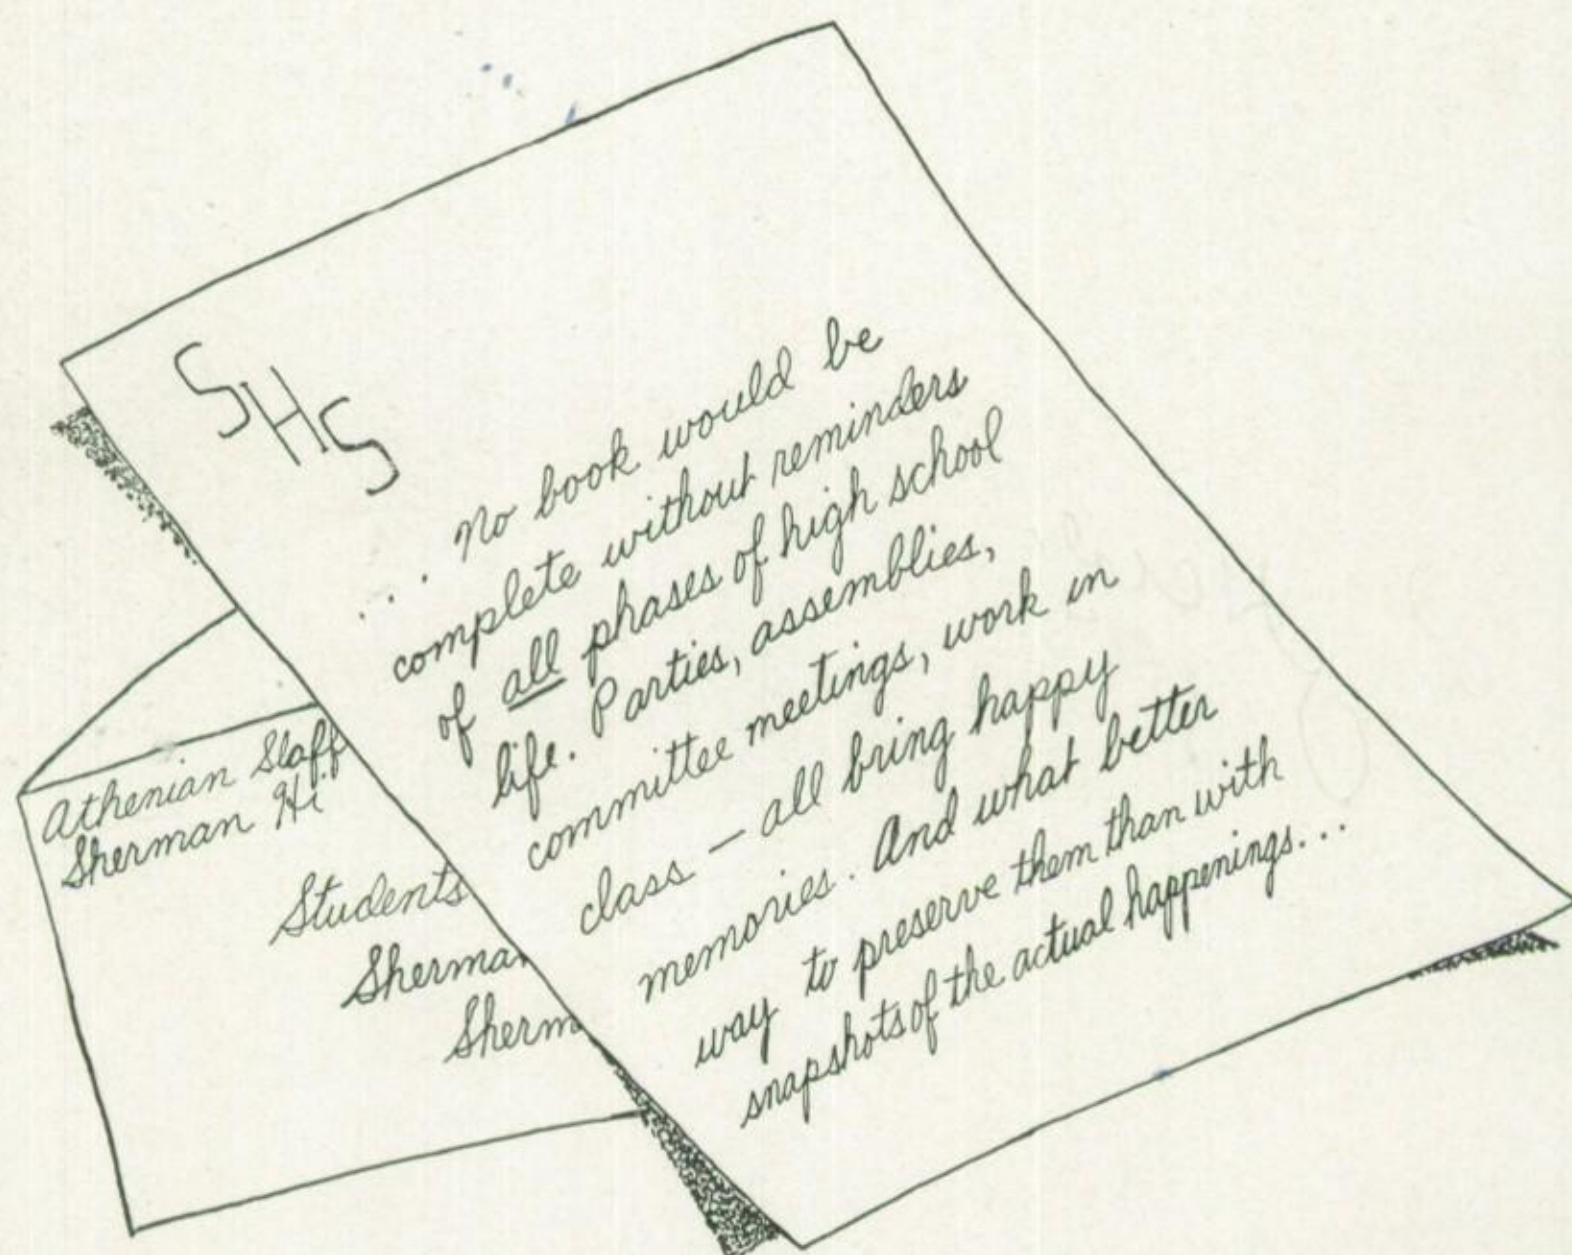

Queen Anna and King Euvell as they leave the auditorium after their coronation.

The regal set which decorated the stage was made of red velvet with coat-of-arms, designed and made by Mrs. J. Frank Chase, Mrs. Tom Anthony, and Mrs. H. E. Seestrom. Their work adds more to the tradition of the Variety Show because the velvet, from the old auditorium curtains, can be used by future queens.

 the businessmen whose names
 follow are those who enable us to buy our Athenians for less than they cost to produce. Give them a big smile and a "Thank you" when you visit them...

CREDITS

To the many individuals and firms who have helped to make the 1953 Athenian a reality, the staff wishes to express its sincere thanks.

... To Leona Howdeshell, who wrote all the copy for the Letters;

... To our adviser, Miss Jessie Sim, whose patience and considerate counsel have guided us through the year;

... To Hal Davis and Robert Landolt for their fine photography and unfailing co-operation;

... To Tyrus Mulkey, who drew the original Letters;

To Becky Reese of the Southwestern Engraving Company of Fort Worth, who gave us advice, and whose company made our engravings;

... To the American Beauty Cover Company of Dallas for making our attractive covers;

... To the Parish Studio of Sherman for the excellent pictures of the Seniors;

Favorites, Band, and Choir;

... Special thanks to the Lewis Printing Company of Sherman, who printed our book;

... To the C. K. Henington Studio of Wolfe City for the underclassmen pictures;

... To the students and teachers of Sherman High School who have provided us with our theme and for whom this book is written.

James,
it is indeed a pleasure
to write in your book.
I have enjoyed knowing
you. This year!
lots of everything
James

HS
Farewell, Seniors of 1953.
Though these seats are empty, our hearts will always be filled with memories of your fine class.
As this is the last page of this book, it is also the last page in the history
of the 1953 school year.
However, we will not say "Goodbye" but "We'll be seeing you."
The 1953 Athenian Staff
